

Medicines Use Reviews

Many people take medicines for long term conditions. Medicines Use Reviews help to improve people's understanding and make sure people get the most out of their medicines. The Medicines Use Review consultation is held in an area where you and the pharmacist can have a private discussion.

Please ask at the pharmacy counter for more information about this service.

Ask your pharmacist

